DEATHS.

MISS GOLDIE A. OSBORNE died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Minnie Osborne, on West Morgan street, Monday, Aug. 6th, at 12.30 p. m., of lung and heart trouble, after a long illness. She leaves besides her mother, one sister, Miss Essie, and a brother, Finis. The funeral was conducted by Dr. J. M. Hubbert at the home Wednesday at 10 a. m. and the remains taken to the 11:18 train and sent to Higbee to be laid beside her father, Richard Osborne, who died 12 years ago, and sister, Clara, who died 3 years ago. Mrs. Osborne, the brother and sister have the sympathy of a large number of friends in this their sad hour of bereavement.

Miss Goldie was a lovely Christian girl and all who knew her loved her. Although she suffered greatly for weeks she was always patient and kind, and in the midst of her own suffering she was always thoughtful of the comfort of those about her. She will be missed by a large circle of friends and her memory will always be sweet to those who knew her best.

LEONARD MITCHELL an eight-year-old boy of Kansas City who was here visiting his grandfather, M. G. Michel, died at his home last week of brain fever, after a week's illness. The remains were laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery.

FLORIDA HAYS the 19-year-old son of Mrs. Ed Pollard, died at the home of his parents at Salt Springs Friday night, Aug. 3rd, at 11:20 o'clock of brain fever, after a two week's illness. The funeral took place at Elmwood M. E. Church Sunday forenoon, conducted by Rev. Rush, of Sweet Springs. Deceased was born on Aug. 2, 1887, and was one day more than 19 years old at his death. His father, James Hays, died five years ago and his mother was remarried to Edward Pollard. He was a good steady young man and was a member of the M. E. Church.

In Memoriam
The Angel of Death visited the home of Mrs. Minnie Osborne, on West Morgan Street, Monday morning, August 6th and took from her the eldest, Goldie, aged 17 years. This fair girl crowned with youth and beauty, nurtured in the arms of affection and happiness, must succumb to that dreaded disease, consumption. She has been a patient sufferer since February last and her health has been a cause of much anxiety to her fond mother. She died, at a time, when life was apparently all blossoming before her. How hard to reconcile ourselves to the loss of our darling, when her continued presence was so necessary to our happiness. But we know that same sweet voice, and gentle confiding heart, that was so dear to us all, is waiting for the loved ones in the Summer Land. "Not dead but gone before: Ere trouble come to stain the pure young heart the Death Angel came and conveyed the opening bud to Heaven, and bade it blossom there.

Only the untiring devotion of her mother, who lavished upon her darling all that love could devise, or money procure, seemed to hold the delicate form to earth. Now the spirit, released from its frail tenement, has mingled its flight to the Eternal Presence where among the pure and good, she rests from pain. Let the sweet hopes of meeting her again, cheer our sad hearts, and remember, oh! sorrowing mother, that as the rose gives out its sweetest fragrance, when crushed, so do the promises of God breathe their healing balm most effectually when pressed upon hearts broken with sorrow.

"This lovely bud so young and fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In Paradise would bloom." LEE.

Cretcher Picnic

The Modern Woodmen of Cretcher gave their annual picnic Wednesday and as usual they had a fine day, big crowd and a good time.

The day was spent socially and in contests of various sorts, all of which attracted much attention, especially the fiddler's contest. In this were eight contestants—Ives Augur, A. N. Wittman, J. M. Faris, Walter Hall, Will Boyd Oscar Mayse, Louis Hudson and Arthur Hulse. J. T. Bishop, G. H. Fenwick and J. J. Witt, all of whom are graduates on the "horse fiddle," acted as judges and awarded the first prize to Will Boyd and the second to Louis Hudson.

Mrs. W. A. Hill won in the ladies' naildriving contest.

Shady Nightwine won the boys' footrace and Ed Sims the free-for-all footrace.

Frayvol Urton won the potato race and David Fisher the egg race.

The picnic was an unusually large and enjoyable affair.

Prize Snake Story

John Shanahan and Luther Adams of Blue Lick last week discovered a nest of rattlesnakes about a quarter of a mile south of the springs and succeeded in killing 8 large rattlesnakes, all over 3 feet long, and about 100 young ones. The snakes were near a ledge of rock where they made their home. The report sounds "snaky" but seems to be substantiated by all of Blue Lick's citizens.

Hay For Sale

New, quality good, in stack or bale. One lot four miles south of Slater, another four miles north of Napton.

Uncalled-for Letters

The following letters remained in the postoffice on Aug. 1, and unless called for within 30 days will be sent to the dead letter office.

Mrs. Flora Harrison, Mrs. Bruce Hays, Mrs. Ollie Jones.
Early Field, Henry Hicks, Frank Marshall, Philip Mann, D. E. Siz, J. S. Waters.
M. T. CHASTAIN, P. M.

M. S. Sims was up from Cretcher yesterday on business yesterday.

Mrs. A. M. O'Donnell, of southeast of town, is much improved.

M. A. Sims, of Columbia, was the guest of his brother, R. S. Sims, at Cretcher this week.

Miles Robinson, of southeast of town, is in a critical condition and was not expected to live long yesterday.

Our colored supplement failed to arrive in time this week. It comes by freight from New York City and was probably switched on the way.

O. E. Hawthorne, the popular C. & A. agent, tells us that Tuesday's ticket sales broke the Marshall record, aggregating nearly $1300. The big sales were partially accounted for by the Home-seekers excursion.

Dr. L. Gillaspay, the eye specialist, will move next week to Harrisonville, Mo., to make that his home. The doctor has been in Marshall three years and during that time has made many friends, who deeply regret his departure and will also miss his family. His work as an optician has been highly satisfactory to our citizens.

J. M. Hook, J. A. Wood, H. J. Barger, Mrs. J. R. Harris and O. L. VanBurskirk ordered the Republican at the Cretcher picnic Wednesday. Mrs. W. A. Hill also ordered it sent to Mrs. Susie Clements of Avon, Idaho. Chas. Simmons, F. H. Shrader and Mote Haggard renewed there. Mr. Haggard also has on thanks for a good dinner.

J. I. Peavler, of south Salt Pond Ave., is in a critical condition.

For Exchange

310 acres improved farm, all prairie land, with valley running from northeast to southwest corner. 100 acres under plow, 40 acres blue stem meadow; two pastures, one of 20 acres, one of 160 acres with meadow along brook. House, 4 rooms, small stable and granary, orchard, well and windmill and tank at house. School house on tract, 3 1/2 miles to station, daily mail at house. Mortgage $3200. Price, $40 per acre. Want hardware.

80 acres undulating blue stem, lime stone soil, prairie. No improvements. 5 1/2 miles from town and railroad. Would make some one a nice home. Would trade for horses, colts or cattle. Price, $30 per acre. Free and clear.

A. J. Palmer,
El Dorado, Kansas.

HERNDON

Herndon will have another telephone line in a few days.

Tom Johnson went to Kansas City last week.

A crowd from here went to Blackwater on a fishing excursion Tuesday and landed plenty of fine ones.

G. A. Parker (Republican) our genial mail carrier, makes his trips regular and whistles good old summer time, but can't hardly enjoy himself for fearing we would have another wet winter.

Jack Stump who has been visiting in Kansas says he is back.

Rev. Ezell is holding a protracted meeting at Hazel Grove Church.
